

ASA Houston Chapter

Presents

Ray Simpson
President and CEO, Simpson Galleries

“The Auction Market Today, a Changing Time”

Ray Simpson will discuss the auction market today, current market trends, and how the auction industry can help downsize or focus a collection. Leaving items to heirs without realistic and solid plans for ownership, often causes unintended hardships for family members. Learn how to properly plan for ownership transfers, as well as personal liquidations.

Thursday, February 1, 2024

Grotto Ristorante, 4715 Westheimer Rd., Houston, TX 77027
Networking 11:30 AM, Presentation & Lunch 12:00 PM (Central)
1 hour of CE Credit, Cost: $30 (includes lunch) or $20 online

Register online at www.HoustonAppraisers.org and go to Calendar/Meeting Registration

For questions, contact Pamela Bensoussan at artappraisers@comcast.com

Ray attended Lyon College, receiving his B.A. in English Literature, Liberal Arts and Sciences, General Studies and Humanities.

Simpson Galleries, Houston, is Texas' Oldest Fine Arts and Antique Auction Firm.

Simpson Galleries has decades of experience working with families, executors and fiduciaries tasked with the appraisal and disposition of the tangible assets of an estate collection. We are always available to confidentially discuss your needs for the evaluation and potential liquidation of the property in the estate.

Whether it is a simple walkthrough for general value assessment or a detailed IRS compliant estate tax appraisal, Simpson Galleries has the expertise to provide direction and solutions.

Ray Simpson, President and CEO